About Us:

Tomato Photo specialises in Maternity, Newborn, Children and Family portraiture using natural light.

We like to think that we are the memory preserver who immortalised the true emotion between you and your child(ren) as well as the true behaviour of your child(ren). We simply translate how we feel as parents in our work.

About The Photographer:

Hart is a self-taught photographer and a qualified master photographer by prestigious Master Photographer Association in UK, who is passionate about people and the craft of producing beautiful images.

Hart is a warm and fun-loving person who put people before photography. His ability in winning his subjects' trust allows him to capture images beyond the norm.

About our Services:

Our service start with a creative session fee, which allow us to spend enough time to capture, post processing and archive the images for 90 days after the session.

We offer our service at any location of your choice, your home, our studio or any outdoor location within Singapore and operate 7 days a week for your convenience. Generally, for outdoor session, it starts at 8am or 5:30pm and studio/indoor session between 10.30am to 3pm.

Each session should last about an hour or so, however, with newborn session (within the first 2 weeks from birth) and it may take 2-4 hours.

We love to involve parents in every session with their children, but if you prefer images of your child(ren) only, we are more than happy to oblige.

We provide more information regarding preparation once a booking is confirmed. We will generally require full payment for the creative session in advance for firm booking.

Images will be individually edited and ready for your viewing (both color & B&W) via a password protected private online gallery within 7 days from the session and our clients will have 30 days to place their order. You are invited to purchase any additional products after seeing the images.

Once your order is ready, you can have your order couriered to you free of charge or opt to collect them in our studio.

Please feel free to contact us via email info@tomato.sg or simply call us at +65 9147 5123, for booking or any further question.

Creative Fee:

$450

Creative session fee covers the photographer's time, talent and creative processes.

It is suitable for newborn session, children & family session, or any important moment in one's life.

You should expect to see about 50+ images from the session.
